The Cottige by the Sea. Childhood's days now pass before me, Forms and econes of long ago, Like a dream they haver o'er me, Calm and bright as evering a glory. Days that know no shade of serrow. When my young heart, pure and free,
Joyful halled each coming morrow,
in the cottage by the sea.

Fancy sees the rose trees twining. Round the old and restic door. And below, the white beach chining,
When I gather shells of yore;
Hear my mother's gentle warning,
As she took me on her knee;
And I feel again life's morning,
In the cottage by the sea.

What though years have rolled before me Though 'mid fairer scenes I roam, ' Yot I no'er shall cease to love thee,
